SEE YOU
THERE!

As communities emerge and rebuild from the COVID-19 pandemic and prepare for ever-evolving local and global realities, GOYN partners and Opportunity Youth leaders continue to tap into their resilient and innovative spirit to build sustainable livelihood pathways. The 4th Annual GOYN Global Convening will bring together these partners and leaders from across the globe to connect, learn, and build community in real time.

We are excited for you to join us for some kujifunza and kujibamba (learning and fun)!

Below you will find a brief agenda as well as key information about your time with us in Mombasa, Kenya. Please email goyn@aspeninstitute.org with any questions you might have.

Global Convening Highlights

Monday Night Youth Partners Cultural Showcase and Reception*

Join us at the Sarova White Sands Resort for an evening of celebration and community-building as young people gather to showcase their cultural joy and creativity. This space will be dedicated to our young partners and colleagues and will feature performances and moments of solidarity for young people. Don't forget to bring your cultural and/or traditional attire and dancing shoes to showcase your community pride.

GOYN aims to foster an intentional and inclusive environment for our young people. This reception will welcome attendees aged 35 and under.*

Community Site Visits

This year, our partners at Swahilipot Hub are pleased to invite you all to witness firsthand the incredible work of Mombasa's ChangeMaker communities.

Convening participants will have the option to spend Tuesday morning visiting one of these communities, meeting local partners and young leaders before heading back to Swahilipot Hub for lunch and the official Convening kick-off in the afternoon.

Mombasa Youth Performances

This year, our partners at Swahilipot Hub are excited to highlight the amazing young artists that are part of a thriving creative community.

Come ready to be inspired by the artistry and beauty of local youth expression in Mombasa featured throughout the Convening, including song, dance, spoken word, poetry and more!

Mombasa Young Entrepreneurs Pop-Up Shops and Offerings

Come ready to support the local Mombasa youth by visiting the pop-up shops at the Swahilipot Hub entrance on Wednesday and Thursday where young entrepreneurs will be presenting their enterprises.
